Once Upon A Child Expands to Jackson, TN with New Location on Vann Drive

Jackson, TN – Heather Witherspoon with Buchanan Realty Group is pleased to announce the successful lease of the former Pier 1 Imports building at 1241 Vann Drive to Once Upon A Child, a premier children’s consignment retailer. The 5,500-square-foot space, brokered by Witherspoon, will soon be home to a new shopping destination for families looking for high-quality, gently used children’s clothing, toys, and gear at unbeatable prices.

Once Upon A Child, known for its commitment to sustainability and affordability, is expanding its presence in West Tennessee, bringing a much-needed children’s resale shop to Jackson’s bustling Vann Drive retail corridor. The new location will offer families a convenient way to both buy and sell children’s items, keeping up with their growing needs while saving money.

“We are thrilled to welcome Once Upon A Child to Vann Drive,” said Heather Witherspoon of Buchanan Realty Group. “This space is a perfect fit for their brand, and we’re excited to see them thrive in one of Jackson’s most vibrant shopping areas.”

The new store is set to open this Spring, providing local families with a sustainable and budget-friendly shopping option. Follow them on Facebook for Updates!
