With the help of Buchanan Realty Group, Three Jackson Businesses Make the Move to Thomsen Farms

Big news for Jackson as three long-standing businesses, Addus Home Care, Denray Signs, and Konica Minolta, are making a move to the bustling Thomsen Farms Development.

Stan Clampitt of BRG (Buchanan Realty Group) is pleased to announce the successful collaboration in relocating Addus Homecare to Thomsen Farms. Addus Homecare, a leading provider of home care services, will be occupying the former FedEx office space located at 409 Walker Rd, a move that underscores the company's commitment to enhancing the quality of life for residents in the area.

Clampitt, representing the Landlord in this significant transaction, expressed his satisfaction, stating, "We are delighted to welcome Addus Homecare to Thomsen Farms and facilitate their relocation and expansion in the market".

Denray Signs, the go-to for high-quality business signage, has snagged a spot at 1363 Union University within Thomsen Farms. A huge shoutout to broker Stan Clampitt, who facilitated both parties in this transaction. Clampitt states, "This location offers DenRay Signs a fantastic opportunity to enhance its visibility and accessibility, further solidifying its position as a leader in the signage industry." Clampitt's expertise and dedication to client success were instrumental in negotiating favorable terms for both parties involved.

Konica Minolta, known far and wide for being a powerhouse in imaging and business tech, is also relocating to Thomsen Farms. Thanks to the efforts of Heather Witherspoon of BRG, Konica Minolta will be taking over Suite C at 1296 Union University. Heather played a pivotal role in securing the ideal space for Konica Minolta's move. Witherspoon expressed her enthusiasm, stating, "I was determined to find the perfect space for Konica Minolta in Thomsen Farms. Over-all, It's a win-win for everyone involved."

The decision of these companies' relocating to Thomsen Farms, underscores the areas allure as a hub for innovation and growth. With Buchanan Realty Group facilitating seamless transitions, businesses can thrive in an environment designed for success.
